ABOUT HAREWOOD

The Harewood House Trust is an independent charitable trust which manages and maintains Harewood House and its immediate grounds, by opening to the public as a visitor attraction and events venue and attracting many thousands of visitors a year.

Harewood House is one of England's finest 18th century country houses, with a magnificent collection of fine and decorative arts. It is an accredited museum and nationally designated collection and is the family seat of the Earl and Countess of Harewood. Set in extensive grounds, Harewood has award winning gardens and a renowned Bird Garden.

As an educational charitable trust, Harewood's key objectives are:

- To preserve for the benefit of the public the House, Gardens and Collections
- To promote the study and appreciation of the arts and sciences
- To provide facilities for recreation

Alongside the care, conservation and interpretation of the core collections, Harewood runs a series of innovative exhibitions of contemporary as well as historic art.

Harewood House Trust is a non-profit making organisation. All income from admissions, events, membership, private hire and other activity is re-invested back into the Trust to ensure its future sustainability.

Further information about Harewood and its programme of events can be found on the website www.harewood.org

Harewood is fortunate to receive support from a large number of volunteers, with different backgrounds, experience, skills, ages and interests. There are many areas in which volunteers are involved and the team plays an important part in ensuring that this special place is both looked after and maintained for present and future generations to enjoy.
