

Welcome to Harewood

Enjoy a warm welcome into the family home of the Earl and Countess of Harewood.

Home of the Lascelles family since the mid-18th century, Harewood House is one of Yorkshire's most popular country houses.

We pride ourselves on creating a truly memorable experience for our group visitors, including options for private tours of the house and gardens, as well being able to provide refreshments. We can even create bespoke tours, allowing you to tailor each aspect of your visit and create the perfect itinerary that you are looking for.

Group Visits 2019 Season

State Floor & Below Stairs

Harewood House has always been a family home. Built between 1759 and 1771 for Edwin Lascelles, it was designed and decorated by the greatest craftsmen of their day.

Marvel at York-born architect John Carr's impressive work, gaze at the ceilings of interior designer Robert Adam and view the most impressive collection of Thomas Chippendale furniture. Groups benefit from being able to book private tours and view areas not usually seen by the public.

No visit would be complete without exploring Below Stairs. With rooms including the Servants' Hall, Old Kitchen and Terrace Gallery, visitors can see what it was like to live and work in an eighteenth century country house. Visitors should allow at least an hour to view the house.

Grounds & Gardens

'Harewood is in Yorkshire. The park seems very fine; the view from the window is very pretty.'

Queen Victoria recalls her visit to Harewood, 1835

The grounds and gardens have long fascinated visitors to Harewood. With soft, rolling hills and mature, established tree lines, groups can view the best of what Lancelot 'Capability' Brown designed for the landscape. Why not let our expert gardeners take you on a guided tour. Enjoy an overview of Harewood's gardening history, as well as its current planting schemes. With over 100 acres of grounds to explore, with highlights including the Victorian Terrace, Himalayan and Walled Gardens, there is plenty to enjoy all year round.

Courtyard Café & Shop

Should you wish to arrange refreshments for your guests, we are able to provide a wide range of delicious options. Why not enjoy tea and coffee on arrival, a soup and sandwich lunch, or even a Cream Tea. Groups also benefit from being able to dine together in their own private space in the popular courtyard building. Please get in touch and enquire about the menus we can provide for your visitors.
