

HOMES THROUGH TIME

Harewood House is a big country house in Leeds. It is more than 250 years old and has been a home to many different people over the years. Each person has put their own stamp on the House, including Princess Mary, who even has a room named after her!

Think about your bedroom at home. What does it look like? How have you made it your own?

Harewood House, Leeds

What do you think the bedrooms at Harewood look like?

What differences can you see?
