

Pre-Visit Activity

The Triangular Trade Route involved the buying and selling of many different things, including enslaved African people.

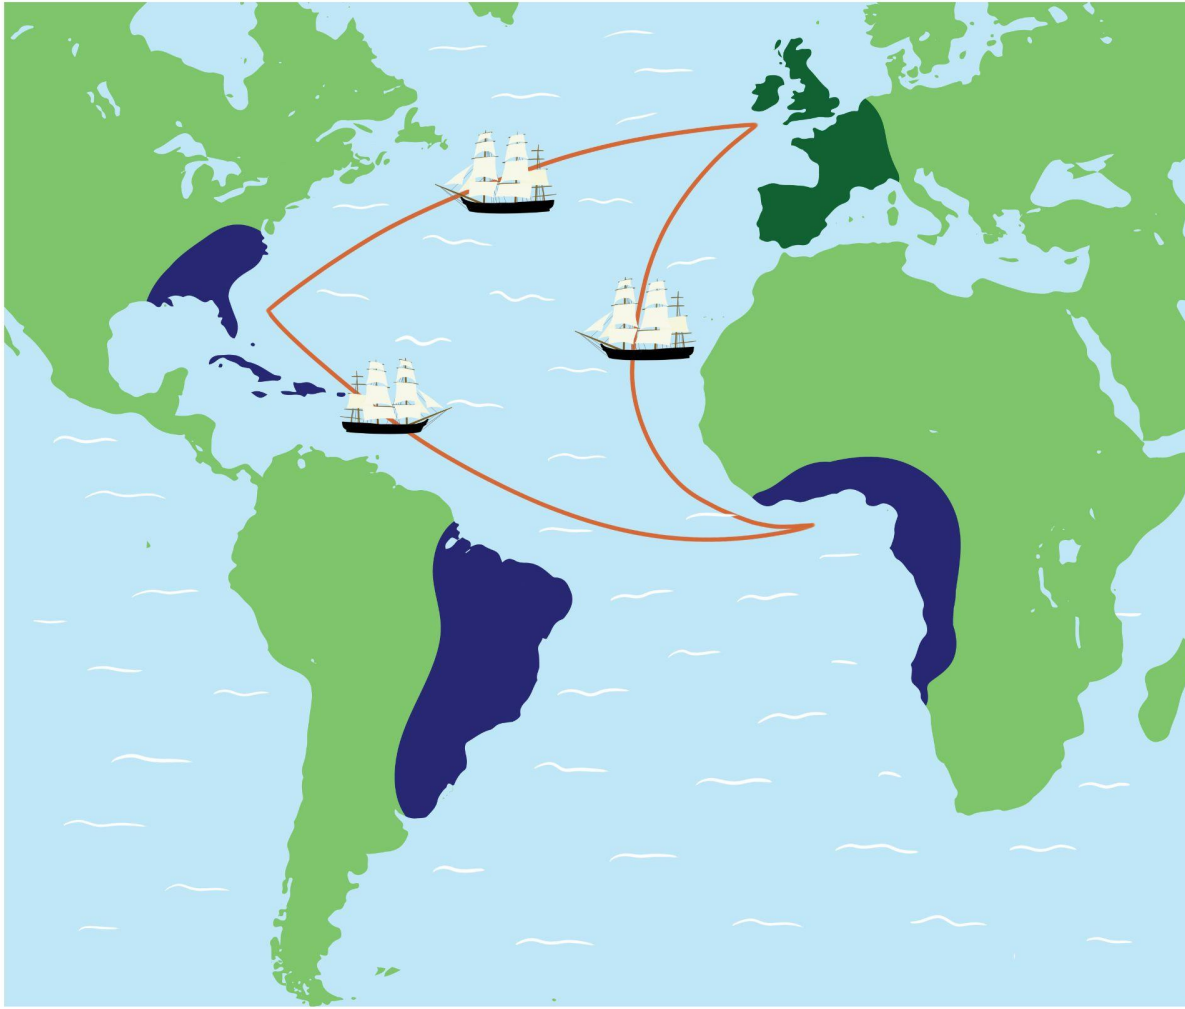

Test your knowledge of the Triangular Trade Route by labelling the map provided.

- + Cut out and stick the map in your book
- + Cut out the place name labels and numbers and stick them in the correct place on the map
- + Cut out the items and stick them in the place where they were traded on the map

Challenge:

Do we still buy these items today? If so, where do they come from? Has much changed since the Transatlantic Slave Trade?

Choose an item to research and see what you can find out.

Can you label the highlighted areas on the map?

Great Britain

West Africa

North America

South America

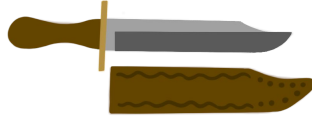

The Caribbean

Can you number the three points of the Triangular Trade Route? Where did the route begin?

1

2

3 knives

tobacco

enslaved African people

cacao (chocolate)

rum

brass textiles raw cotton pottery

firearms

sugar

Answers